

ICA celebrates 100 years at Kerry Libraries

The Irish Countrywomen's Association celebrates its centenary in 2010. At the request of the Association, libraries in Kerry will hold various craftwork exhibitions during the month of May as part of the Kerry celebrations. The ICA is a successful and admired organisation - founded in May 1910 and today has 700 local Guilds with over 15,000 members throughout Ireland in towns, villages and rural areas.

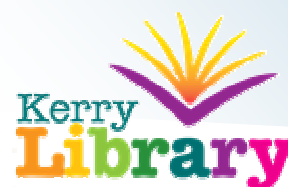

Exhibition Location	Date	Launch
Tralee Library - ICA Exhibition	On view from Tuesday, 11 May – Saturday, 22 May	Official Launch – Tuesday, 11 May, 6:30pm by County ICA President: Noreen McEvoy
Killarney Library - ICA Exhibition	On view from Tuesday, 4 May – Friday, 28 May	Official Launch – Tuesday, 11 May, 6:30pm , by Cllr. Michael Gleeson, Mayor of Killarney
Caherciveen Library - ICA Exhibition	On view from Thursday, 13 May – Thursday, 3 June	Official Launch – Thursday, 13 May, 6:45pm by Guild Presidents: Maureen Murphy, Caherciveen & Helen O'Sullivan, Dromid
Ballybunion Library - ICA Exhibition	On view from Friday, 14 - Friday 21 May	Exhibition only, no Launch
Castleisland Library - ICA Exhibition	On view from Tuesday, 11 May – Saturday, 22 May	Official Launch – Tuesday, 18 May, 11.00am , by Cllr. Bobby O'Connell, Mayor of Kerry

 Celebrating 100 years

Fáilte roimh chách

A service of
Kerry County Council

Enjoy the Discovery
www.kerrylibrary.ie